

SEGORBE

CEIP Pintor Camarón

4th grade

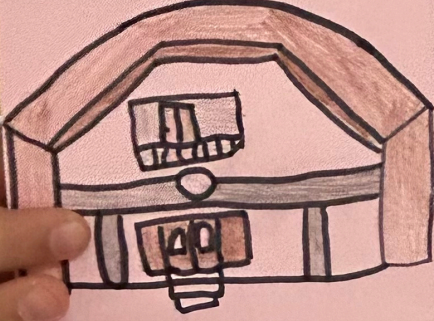

ALTURA

Buildings

Altura tow hall and oil museum

Fauna (Animals)

Cat, Dog
Squirrel, gee
Spiders, birds birds

Flora (Plants)

Sunglower, roses
Tulip, Olive trees,
daisies, Orange tees,
igeros, lotus and almon
blossom

Landscapes

Torrechiva and Watercress sountain

Information

Altura is a Spanish municipality located in the Valencian Community. the term occupies an area of 129,47 km².

The natural path that connects Aragon with the Mediterranean coast is located in the valley of the Palencia River. It is an inland municipality located in the heart of the Sierra Calderera whose highest peak, Mont Mayor, is located in Altura.

Province: Castellón
Mayor: Paco Ibarraez

Elevation: 391 m

Surface: 129.5 Km
Main festival: March 25;
April 30, last two weeks
of September

Population: 3.695 (2023)

ALTO PALANCIA

Buildings

Alto Palancia is a town in the province of Castellón, Spain. It is known for its castle, the Castle of San Mateo, which was built in the 13th century. The town is located in the heart of the Sierra Calderera, a natural park. The town is known for its traditional architecture and its festivals.

FLORA

Pine: Pine trees can be trees or nearly shrubs. Pines are from the Pinaceae family. They can reach 40 metres in height. They are evergreen and produce pine nuts.

Cork oak: Cork oak is native to Europe and North Africa. Cork is obtained from its bark. It is medium-sized and evergreen.

Olive: Olive tree, also known as Olea europaea. It is a tree with a wide, thick trunk, evergreen and can reach 15 metres in height.

Sierra Calderera: It is a natural park located in the province of Castellón, Spain. It is known for its traditional architecture and its festivals.

ANIMALS

They measure about 19 centimeters in length. It weighs about 25 grams. They eat insects.

Sierra Calderera: It is a natural park located in the province of Castellón, Spain. It is known for its traditional architecture and its festivals.

LANDSCAPES

It is known for its traditional architecture and its festivals. The town is located in the heart of the Sierra Calderera, a natural park. The town is known for its traditional architecture and its festivals.

VINARÒS

Vinaròs

LANDSCAPES

Aiguaoliva

BEACH

CALA

PUNTA

FAUNA

Redstart small bird (14cm) has got a red tail. It lives in the forest. It eats insects.

BUILDING

Hermitage of San Gregorio. It is located at the outskirts of Vinaròs. It is close to the cemetery.

TYPICAL FOOD:

Vinaròs prawn

VINARÒS

Vinaròs is a very beautiful country to spend the summer and there are very important monuments.

birds

Vinaròs most famous in that city.

CITY HALL

The bridge this monument called Vinaròs. It is so beautiful for the majors and city called Vinaròs.

MONUMENT

The church is one of the most beautiful monuments in Vinaròs.

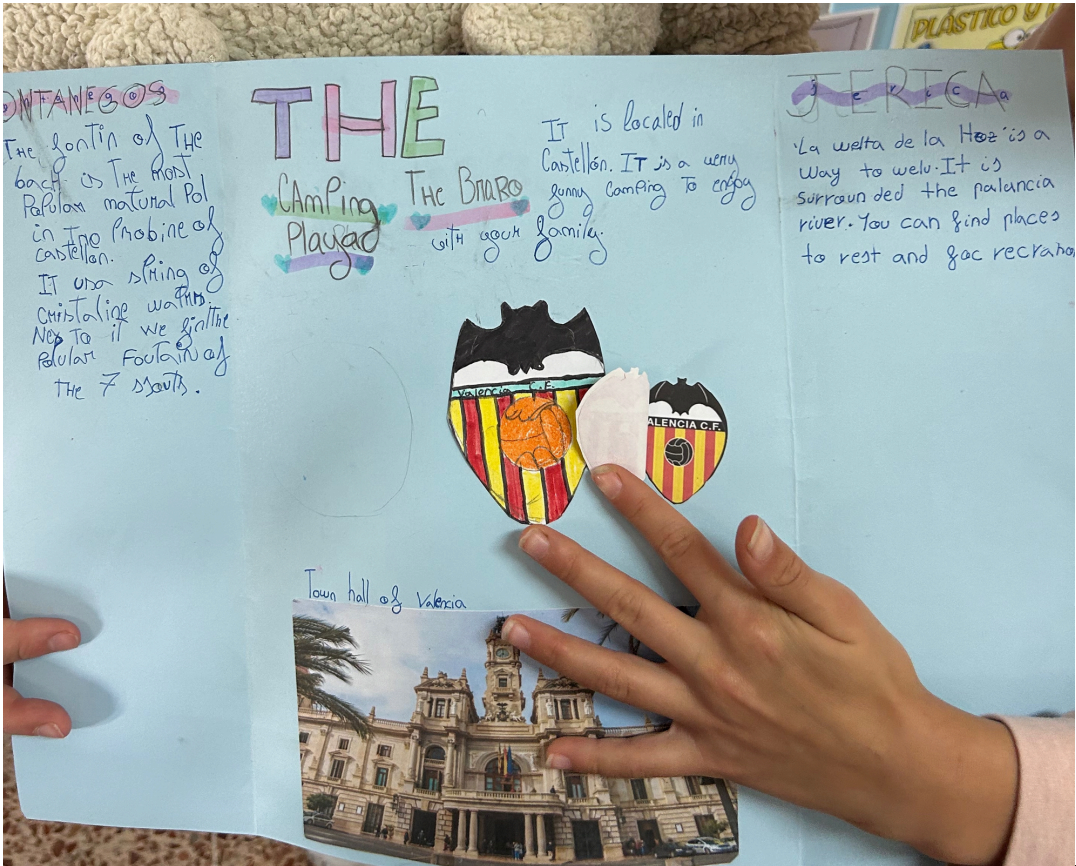

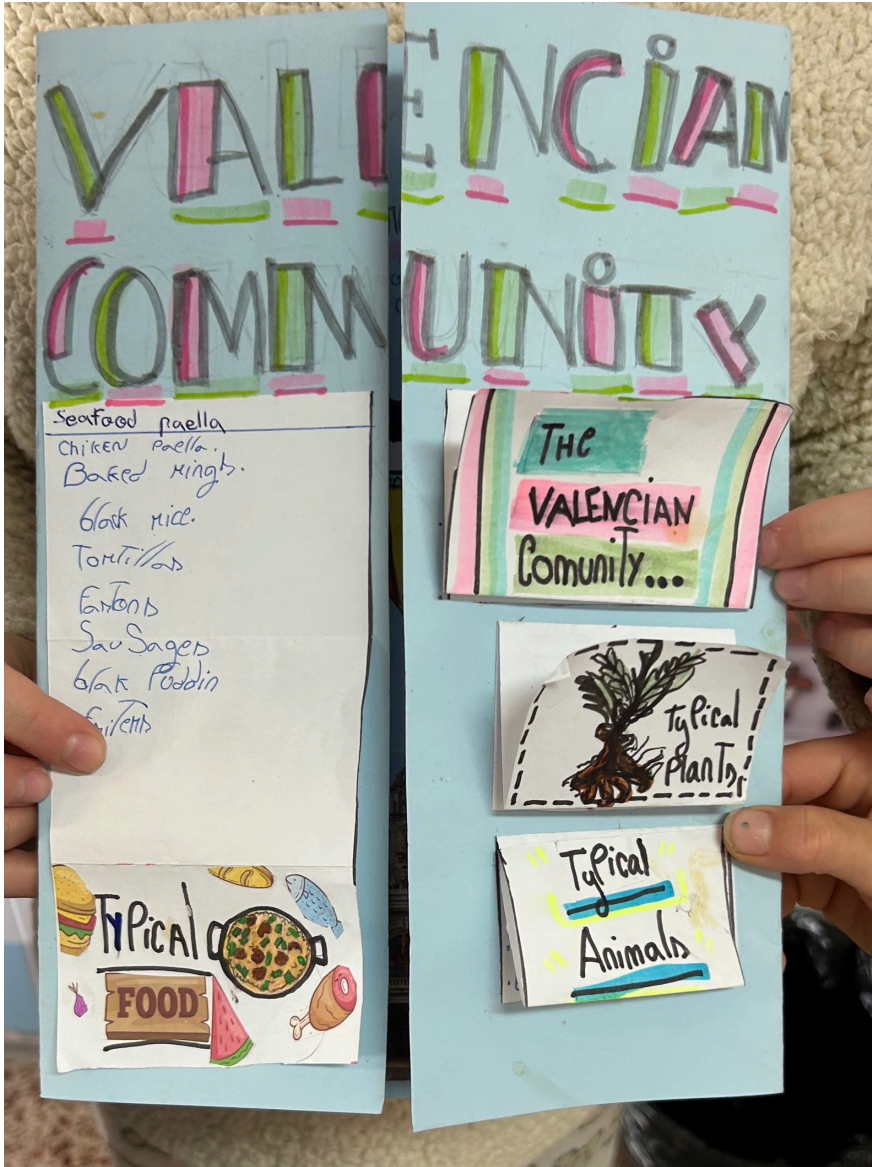

FAMOUS FOOD FROM VINARÒS

CARNIVAL

Carnival is the best tradition of Vinaròs because they are the best parties.

VALENCIAN COMMUNITY

VASC COUNTRY

